12:00- 13:30	Global Taxomania	EU Platform on Sustainable Finance	Acciona. Oficina Finanzas Verdes at Ministry of Finance (Chile). Climate Bonds Initiative. Sustainable Finance Institute Asia.	Sustainable finance has long yearned for a common language for sustainable activities. Over the past few years, green or sustainable finance taxonomies have enjoyed widespread success with a proliferation dubbed "taxomania". This session will examine the key role taxonomies play in the transition to a sustainable and carbon neutral economy and the development of taxonomies in different jurisdictions. The panel will analyse the extent to which we can hope for a global common framework and what should be the next steps towards higher compatibility between the different taxonomies.	Helena Viñes Fiestas: Commissioner, Spanish Financial Markets Authority. Rapporteur (EU Platform on Sustainable Finance)	Panellist 1 - José Luis Blasco: Global Sustainability Director of Acciona. Panellist 2 - María Paz Gutiérrez Montes (Oficina Finanzas Verdes at Ministry of Finance, Chile). Panellist 3 - Sean Kidney: CEO of Climate Bonds Initiative.
